Who Are We

The ICTI Association in Antalya, Turkey promotes cultural heritage through events and global showcases to preserve and share unique cultural stories for global understanding and appreciation.

The ICTI Association, based in Antalya, Turkey, is dedicated to promoting cultural heritage through cultural events and global showcases. We believe in the importance of preserving and sharing the unique stories of every culture to foster understanding and appreciation worldwide.

Our Mission

We focus on cross-cultural exchange for a more peaceful world.

This association is dedicated to fostering understanding and cooperation among people from diverse cultural backgrounds. By facilitating interactions and dialogue between individuals from different parts of the world, it aims to promote peace and harmony.

Our Vission

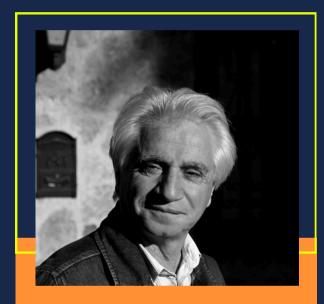

To respect and celebrate cultural diversity, enriching lives and enhancing understanding.

By respecting cultural diversity, we acknowledge the unique traditions, beliefs, and practices that different groups of people hold. Celebrating diversity involves actively embracing and appreciating these differences, which not only enriches individual lives but also fosters deeper understanding and empathy among people from diverse backgrounds. Ultimately, by embracing cultural diversity, we create a more inclusive and harmonious society where everyone's contributions are valued and respected.
